GRAYSSOKER

GRAYSSOKER IT'S FUCKING ELECTRIC ACCORDION

A powerful fusion of metal riff, rap vocals and electro beats, the GRAYSSOKER storm leads you into the dark side of the accordion.

Featuring a live drummer, Clément Palomba punches his accordion to get the instrument out of his comfort zone, causing to the audience a positive trauma.

After 10 years of classical and jazz music studies, he went to the punk world during his high school years, trading his accordion with around twenty effect pedals to produce sounds like a guitar, bass, synth, and many more...

Spotted with his video clips on YouTube, the power duo GRAYSSOKER has become in less than a year the master of hall warming, winning in the first parts of famous international bands : Igorrr, Les Tambours du Bronx, Hilight Tribe... or in headliner during the FUCK MUSETTE TOUR with more than 60 shows in all over Europe including the HELLFEST 2019.

GRAYSSOKER is a virile, aggressive, saturated, trance, tribal, dominatrix, dirty, energetic, blinding, intense and especially very innovative performance.

Be careful, neighbors, these Nice born nineteen years old boys are not playing "Bal Musette" (Traditional French ballroom dance) but are closer to heavy metal !

This rather out of fashion instrument finds a new and pleasing aspect !

A mind-blowing effect !

nice-matin

An astonishing result !
A raucous, dirty, mean sound.
